

Internship – Human Resources and Organizational Development

Company Profile

Algar Rother – Coaches & Consultants stand for innovative and customized solutions in change management, agile leadership and team development. We coach, advise, train and manage projects in corporations and medium-sized companies. Our work is always focused on people.

Areas of Activity

- Develop and implement various project topics
- Support and organize internal company operations
- Develop concepts for various projects in cooperation
- Prepare and evaluate seminars, workshops and talks afterwards
- Prove your team skills, flexibility, creativity and commitment

We also offer

- An open and appreciative working atmosphere in a committed team on a growth course
- Flat hierarchies and short communication channels
- A beautiful working environment in a family atmosphere
- 2 office cats
- Free drinks as well as a crazy coffee machine with a large selection and many teas with cool sayings
- Frequently free team lunches and snacks

If you are interested in topics related to personal and organizational development, have good computer skills (PowerPoint, Word, Excel, Outlook) and are willing to work on multiple projects, we look forward to receiving your application.

Support

The supervision for your internship will be provided by qualified colleagues from the departments of economics, psychology and education.

Framework data

Where: Karlsruhe-Durlach

How long: 3 months mandatory internship as part of your study or 3 month voluntary internship

Information and application

For further information, please contact Brigitte Berlinger

Fon: (+49) 0721 / 754 022 22

Fax: (+49) 0721 / 754 022 10

Email: info@algarrother.com

